This analysis of why Trump won is why he won: Trump stole the Dems' multiracial working class coalition by adopting their abandoned pro labor policy—tariffs & immigration control. Instead of recognizing this, they call the working class racist for voting their economic interests

Ida Bae Wells @nhannahjones
We must not delude ourselves in this moment. Multiracial democracy in the United States is less than 60 years old. It has always been contested, often violently so. It has always been fragile. Since this nation's inception large swaths of white Americans -- including white women -- have claimed a belief in democracy while actually enforcing a white ethnocracy. In the face of shifting demographics where white Americans will lose their numeric majority, we see a growing embrace of autocracy to keep the "legitimate" rulers of this country in power. History teaches us that we are in a perilous moment.

MSNBC's Morning Joe now says men shouldn't be able to compete against women in sports and Democrats shouldn't be allowing it. The woke mind virus is in full retreat in the bright light of an election ass kicking.

The lows poll that changed the narrative for the final 48 hours of the race was off by 16 points.
It predicted a Harris victory by 3%.
She lost by 13%.
Not a good showing for the polling industry. #Election2024

Various Democrats are calling for "unity"
But why would they want to unify w/ deplorable, racist, sexist, Nazi, garbage? Could it be that was all an ugly lie meant to divide the people and get Trump killed? #JustAsking

About Biden's 81 million votes...
How do we go from 156 million in 2020
to 137 million in 2024?
when they said 2024 had RECORD turnout 🤔
Where did 20 million voters go?

 CAN CRY! Donald Trump was elected and will be the next President of these United States of America.

This was an emotional roller coaster. We almost lost our country.

I'm a proud American and yes proud Black American who fully supports Trump.

Trump was impeached,
